GRIDLEY TRIANGLE PARK

Aptly named for its location between the intersections of Lomond Boulevard, Sherrington Road, and Gridley Road, Gridley Triangle Park is situated in the Lomond neighborhood just a few blocks away from Lomond Elementary School. Though the footprint of Gridley Triangle Park is modest, there's plenty of places to gather and play within its borders. The large open green space along the southern edge of the park is perfect for neighborhood games of tag, and has served as the location for past #ShakerPlays yoga in the park sessions. There's also a number of picnic tables centrally located in the park that are ideal for a small family gatherings. Don't forget to bring your chess or checkers pieces to the park to enjoy our game table! The park also includes a natural play area, benches, and paved sidewalks and paths. Lastly, there's a Little Free Library located in the southeast corner of the park that is maintained by neighborhood residents.

Many of the improvements mentioned above were spearheaded by a dedicated, grassroots resident effort and implemented between 2010 and 2012. The Lomond Association applied for and received a grant from the Fund for the Future to prepare a plan and cost estimate for improvements to the park, and numerous public meetings throughout the process allowed residents to provide comments and feedback.
